

Critical Perspectives on Health and Social Care 2011/12

dates and confirmed external speakers are:

Wednesday October 5th 2011

Ian Shaw, University of Nottingham

Changes in NHS commissioning arrangements from an insider's policy perspective

Wednesday November 2nd 2011

Jennifer Clegg, University of Nottingham

Defining a meaningful life for adults with severe and complex intellectual disabilities:
a Deleuzian perspective

Wednesday December 7th 2011

Mark Learmonth, Durham University

A critical account of the rise and spread of "leadership" in the NHS

Wednesday January 11th 2012

Lucy Frith, University of Liverpool

Third sector provision in health care - threats and opportunities

Wednesday February 1st 2012

Allyson Pollock, University of Edinburgh

Economic sorcery and junk science: debunking the myths and methods of competition and value for money in health care

Wednesday March 7th 2012

John Cromby, Loughborough University and Midlands Psychology Group
A social materialist psychology of distress

Wednesday May 2nd 2012

Irina Singh, London School of Economics

A disorder of anger and aggression: Children's experiences of ADHD in the UK

Wednesday June 6th 2012

Dana Wilson-Kovacs, University of Exeter

The clinician-scientist: challenges and opportunities in clinical stem cell research

To be held on the first Wednesdays of the month in October, November, December, February, March, May and June, and the second Wednesday in January

B63 Law and Social Sciences Building
5.30 – 7.00pm

All Welcome | Refreshments will be served | Please email emily.frisby@nottingham.ac.uk to confirm attendance